Any use of these funds outside the scope of paragraph 4 may subject the City or Tribe to sanction by the State of Arizona, and therefore must be strictly prohibited to the maximum extent possible by either Party. However, nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to prevent City from supplementing, or re-prioritizing, the specific amounts set forth in paragraph 4(a), so long as City receives prior written approval from the Tribe.

- 11 Amendment. This Agreement shall not be amended except by written instrument mutually agreed upon and executed by the parties.
- 12 Entire Agreement. This Agreement, including its exhibits and recitals, constitutes the entire agreement between the parties, and includes all prior oral and written agreements of the parties.
- 13 Legal Jurisdiction. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed as either limiting or extending the legal jurisdiction of City or Tribe.
- 14 No Joint Venture. It is not intended by this Agreement, and nothing contained in this Agreement shall be construed to, create any partnership, joint venture, or employment relationship between the parties or create any employer-employee relationship between the parties. No party hereto shall be liable for any debts, accounts, obligations or other liabilities whatsoever of the other, including without limitation the other party's obligation to withhold social security and income taxes for itself or any of its employees.
- 15 Beneficiaries. Nothing in this Agreement, whether express or implied, is intended to confer any rights or remedies under or by reason of this Agreement on any person other than the parties to it and their respective successors and permitted assigns.
- 16 Timeliness. Each of the parties to this Agreement agrees to take such actions as may be necessary to carry out the terms of this Agreement, and to cause such documents as may be necessary to be executed with reasonable promptness.
- 17 Non-waiver. The failure of any party to insist, on any one or more instances, upon the full and complete performance of any of the terms and provisions of the Agreement to be performed on the part of the other, or to take any action permitted as a result thereof, shall not be construed as a waiver or relinquishment of the right to insist upon full and complete performance of the same, or any other covenant or condition, either in full or in part in the future. The acceptance by any party of sums of less than may be due and owing it at any time shall not be construed as accord and satisfaction.

- 18 Severability. In the event that any provision, or any portion of any provision, of this Agreement or the application thereof, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable, such invalidity, illegality or unenforceability shall have no effect on the remaining portion of any provision or any other provision, or their application, which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this Agreement shall be deemed to be severable.

19 Termination.

- 19.1 For Cause. Any party hereto may terminate this Agreement for material breach of the Agreement by another party. Prior to any termination under this section, the party allegedly in default shall be given written notice by the other party of the nature of the alleged default. The party said to be in default shall have forty-five (45) days to cure the default. If the default is not cured within that time, the other party may terminate this Agreement. Any such termination shall not relieve either party from liabilities or costs already incurred under this Agreement.
- 19.2 Force Majeure. A party shall not be in default under this Agreement if it does not fulfill any of its obligations under this Agreement because it is prevented or delayed in doing so by reason of uncontrollable forces. The term "uncontrollable forces" shall mean, for the purposes of this Agreement, any cause beyond the control of the party affected, including but not limited to failure of facilities, breakage or accident to machinery or transmission facilities, weather conditions, flood, earthquake, lightning, fire, epidemic, war, riot, civil disturbance, sabotage, strike, lockout, labor dispute, boycott, material or energy shortage, casualty loss, acts of God, or action or non-action by governmental bodies in approving or failing to act upon applications for approvals or permits which are not due to negligence or willful action of the parties, order of any government officer or court (excluding orders promulgated by the parties themselves), and declared local, state or national emergency, which, by exercise of due diligence and foresight, such party could not reasonably have been expected to avoid. Either party rendered unable to fulfill any obligations by reason of uncontrollable forces shall exercise due diligence to remove any such inability with all reasonable dispatch.
- 19.3 Funding Sources; Budget; Non-appropriation. This Agreement and all obligations upon the parties arising therefrom shall be subject to any limitation imposed by budget law. The parties affirm that they have within their respective budgets sufficient funds to discharge the obligations and duties assumed under this Agreement. If for any reason any party does not appropriate sufficient monies for the purpose of maintaining this Agreement, this Agreement shall be deemed to terminate by operation of law on the date of expiration of funding. In the event of such cancellation, the parties hereto shall have no further obligation to the other party other than for payment for services rendered prior to cancellation.

19.4 Conflict of Interest. This Agreement may be canceled without penalty or further obligation pursuant to A.R.S. § 38-511, and applicable provisions under the Constitution of the Pascua Yaqui Tribe, the pertinent provisions are incorporated into this Agreement by reference.

19.5 Ownership of Property Upon Termination. Any termination of this Agreement shall not relieve any party from liabilities or costs already incurred under this Agreement, nor affect any ownership of the project constructed pursuant to this Agreement.

20. Reporting. City will report on its spending of the funds received under this agreement within 90 days after completion of the project for which funds were granted, including providing an expense report of expenditure of funds and a closing presentation by the City to the Tribe's Tribal Council regarding the project.
